Heritage Days Camp (age 7-9)

Our hands-on approach in all of the Heritage Camps will make our program unforgettable and exciting for children of all ages. Looking to the past is a way of appreciating and honoring our roots. All children learn best by doing and our campers will be engaged in many varied activities. The campers will explore old fashioned games and toys, cooking, Native American crafts, fabric arts, barnyard activities, photography, weaving, quilting, blacksmithing and candle making. The activities will give the campers a unique glimpse of the days when our ancestors were building a great land.
